3. FYE 09/30/2022 Budget Approval Letter was read and acknowledged
4. Letter from Joshua Carpenter was read and acknowledged: Joshua has resigned from the Ludlow Housing Authority Board
5. Letter from the Town Clerk was read and acknowledged: Letter they received that Joshua Carpenter had resigned from The Ludlow Housing Authority Board. Letter of request from Chairperson was sent to the Selectman Office to have the Town post the open position on their web site for the Selectman to appoint person to the position.

7. Old Business:

- A. PHN 2019-13 Technical Assistance for Vacant Land Development: Tabled Until land is sub divided. Landowner on Willard was illegally clearing land from our property. He was served a “cease-and-desist” letter from us and spoken to and told that he is not to trespass on our land. Maintenance has placed many more “no trespass” signs along the borders of our property as well as they will be taking any trash and debris that was piled up on our land, Including 21 tires, for disposal.
- B. Chestnut Street: Waiting for Town to sign off on bottom floor of building.
- C. LHA Completely Non-Smoking: Survey Results see: #7(D)#1
- D. Review updated or new policies:
 1. Smoking Policy: Survey Results out of 166 surveys we received 78 back by this meeting. (10) totally non-smoking, (27) current policy (but with notes to enforce), (7) designated areas, (7) anywhere outside, then there were (27) that had two options or more options. Many surveys had notations about enforcing the rules, tenants smoking by windows, and cigarette butts.

Discussion ensued.

Upon a motion made by Raymond Anderson, which was seconded by David Sepanek, it was unanimously voted to keep the current policy, with minor additions, of "NO SMOKING" in ALL LUDLOW HOUSING AUTHORITY buildings, residences apartments and no smoking within 25' of any building. Picnic tables and benches will be placed at least 25' away and will have a cigarette butt disposal fixture. These are not designated areas, but this will allow tenants to have a place to smoke that is within policy. There will also be "NO SMOKING" in front of tenant 's windows. All in favor

Tenants congregating and/or smoking will be asked to do so around picnics table areas not to disturb other tenants.

2. Maintenance Policy was reviewed page by page.

Upon a motion made by Raymond Anderson, which was seconded by David Sepanek, it was unanimously voted to approve the revised Maintenance Policy will all discussed updates. All in favor

3. Language Policy: We are currently in the process of setting up an account with International Translation Company, LLC so we can have a number and access code for office and maintenance supervisor to have access to immediate translation phone services. Should be final draft at next Board meeting.

4. Depreciation & Capitalization Policy: will be condensed into one page and voted on in May 2022.
